

TATTERSALL'S NEWS UPDATE

January 1999

Chairman's Message

By the time you read this, it will be mid-January and we'll all be over the festive season, which I hope was an enjoyable break for all Members.

Soon, the Committee will be releasing the draft accounts for 1998, and the good news is PROFIT. Due to the increasing levels of service to Members, the trading position turned around last year, and it appears that this trend will continue.

Together with senior management, the Committee has focused on a great year of Club Events – just look at the diary for the spread of entertaining functions.

I expect to be in a position to announce some arrangements with a highly prestigious Olympic organisation, who's senior Directors are also Tattersall's Members. These Members intend to conduct a whole raft of functions in the Club during the 2000 Olympics. The guaranteed profit from these events will more than pay for Club renovations during 1999.

With the Club's bank account clear of overdraft for the first time in years, it is a pleasure to welcome in the New Year, which promises so much for Members.

AN EVENING OF CLASSICAL MUSIC FRIDAY 5TH MARCH 1999

Move over Black Tie Boxing, for Ensemble Antarctica, a recent addition to the Sydney Classical Music Scene will be performing at Tattersall's Club next March.

Founded in 1997 by Conductor and Horn Player Matthew Coorey, this 15-20 piece Ensemble will comprise a variety of instruments: strings, woodwind, brass, percussion and keyboards.

The musicians' playing for you will include some of Sydney's finest such as members of the Sydney Symphony Orchestra, the Australian Opera and Ballet Orchestra, the Brandenburg Orchestra as well as a range of freelance players.

Selected popular works from Dvorak, Mozart and Wagner will be performed for you on the evening.

Make your bookings now, as tickets are already selling quickly. This evening certainly promises to be memorable.

CRICKET SPORTS LUNCHEON

WITH TERRY JENNER

Friday 5th February 1999

Don't forget to book for our Cricket Sports Luncheon on Friday 5th February 1999. Former Australian Test Spinner, Terry Jenner will be speaking on a number of cricket related topics, and is well known for his right arm leg break/googly bowling style.

Most Cricketing enthusiasts will, however, know him better for that incident in the 1970/71 final Ashes test in Sydney. Terry was struck on the head by a "errant high (bodyline type) delivery" from English bowler John Snow, provoking some ugly crowd reactions.

Lunch Only

Tickets for the lunch only are $65.00 per person and include a three-course luncheon, beers, wines and soft drinks.

Tattersall's Lunch and Cricket Package

If you are just returning from your Christmas Break, wishing to ease your way back in the grind, you may care to indulge yourself by purchasing our

Available at $120.00 per person, this package includes:

- ☐ Terry Jenner Speakers Luncheon with three course menu and beverages
- ☐ Coach transport to the SCG departing Tattersall's at 1400 sharp
- ☐ Reserved seating in the O'Reilly stand at the SCG to watch the Australia vs England Day/Night match before the finals series begin

Please note that only 20 places remain for the combined package, and we would recommend that you book very quickly, as we believe that all tickets for this game have already gone. To make your booking, please call the office on 9264 6111

CULINARY UPDATES

TATTERSALL'S DINING ROOM PRESENTS BILL MARCHETTI

AS OUR GUEST 'MASTER' CHEF

Considered the leading pacesetter of Northern Italian Cuisine

As the driving force behind Melbourne's legendary Latin Restaurant, Bill has been at the forefront of Australia's culinary revolution for many years, and is now making his way to Tattersall's Club next February to cook exclusively for you.

Marchetti's Latin Restaurant menu presents an exemplary diversity of regional Italian recipes, popularising dishes like Spaghetti Neri (with its sauce of squid ink), Capretto alla Cacciatora (kid goat braised with garlic and -rosemary) and his famous Tira Mi Su.

Year after year, the 'Age Good Food Guide', Melbourne's foremost restaurant review book, has awarded Marchetti's Latin the coveted titles of 'Best Italian Restaurant' and 'Most Popular Restaurant' by Victoria's voting public. In 1997, Bill Marchetti won the coveted "Insegna del Ristorante Italiano" for his Latin Restaurant, an international award given by the Italian Government to recognised true and authentic Italian Restaurants worldwide.

Both as a chef and restaurateur, Bill has made a significant contribution towards Melbourne's transformation into the culinary capital of Australia. Always looking for new challenges, he opened the Tuscan Grill in 1992 – an up market brasserie-style establishment located in the middle of the legal precinct of Melbourne's CBD specialising in char grilled foods from the Tuscany region.

In addition to the accolades already mentioned, Bill's Restaurants have also been awarded with 6 American Express Restaurant Awards, 22 "The Age Good Food Guide" Awards and 10 "Good Life" Awards over the last decade.
